

A HISTORY STORY OF HOCKEY'S FIRST PROFESSIONAL LEAGUE IN CANADA FROM THE BLACK COMMUNITY
Black, Indigenous, and People of Color (BIPOC)

BLACK ICE

Black Ice masterfully navigates the challenges and triumphs facing these athletes by exploring deep BIPOC roots of the game, dating back to 1865, the Colored Hockey League of the Maritimes (CHL), the first all-pro league, which introduced the slapshot and did much to shape hockey we know and love today.

expert exposition followed by Q&A discussion

Friday February 27 2026
White Rock Community Centre
15154 Russell Ave Doors open 6:00
Admission by donation Film start 6:30

More information at

FREE PARKING

southrocksocialjustice.ca

x.com/WRSJFS_New

Facebook.com/RockSocialJustice